Presents

A 3-Day Watercolor Workshop with Artist

Bridget Austin

April 30 – May 1 & 2, 2012

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday
9:00am-4:00pm

$255 PAC Members
$285 Non-Members

This class is designed for painters with at least some watercolor experience.

Workshop Description:

Enjoy fluid washes and fresh colors as you block in larger shapes and underpaintings. Surprise yourself with the results as colors settle and flow. That's what sets watercolor apart from other media! Bridget will blend that freedom with demonstrations of planning compositions, brushwork, layering values in negative painting, and saving the white of the paper. Subjects will include flowers and/or still life, landscapes, and buildings. Daily demos, plenty of painting time, personal and group help, a laugh or two, and the joy of painting for three days. A supply list will be sent. Feel free, though, to use your favorite paints, brushes and paper. Your personal photos and sketches are encouraged, but Bridget will provide references for those who need them or want to follow along.

About the Instructor:

Bridget Austin has enjoyed painting her watercolors of flowers, nature studies, landscapes and travels for over 30 years. She has achieved Master Status in the Transparent Watercolor Society of America, and has exhibited with the American and National Watercolor Societies, as well as being a member of the Wisconsin Watercolor Society. After careers in graphic design and classroom teaching, she has enjoyed teaching watercolor workshops nationwide. You can see more of her work on her website www.bridgetaustin.com.
